

THE UNITED STATES BONE AND JOINT DECADE SALUTES AMERICAN MEDICAL SCHOOLS

The United States Bone and Joint Decade (USBJD) is a multidisciplinary coalition of organizations committed to promoting musculoskeletal health. Our mission is to provide national leadership, and coordinate activities in the United States as part of the worldwide movement to improve patient care, to promote musculoskeletal research and to advance understanding and treatment of musculoskeletal conditions.

“We thank every U.S. medical school, listed below, for endorsing the Decade, and look forward to working with all of the schools to help advance education, research and patient care for bone and joint diseases.” Nancy Lane, MD, President, USBJD.
