

403 West St. Charles Rd.
Suite 403B
Lombard, IL 60148

217.375.3917
usbji@affinity-strategies.com

usbji.org

Bone and Joint Alliance Membership Benefits

Alliance membership listing on the USBJI website (including organization name, logo, organizational description (as supplied by the member), as well as an optional link to each organization's website)

Ability to use the USBJI logo with "Member" designation

Opportunity to serve as part of the USBJI Bone and Joint Alliance Council (which meets at minimum twice per year and includes interactions with the USBJI Executive Council and leadership)

Ability to provide input to USBJI committees and task forces (including networking opportunities with members and their representatives, suggesting new members)

Sponsors may provide input on USBJI initiatives such as BMUS and Young investigators

Participation in setting and advocating for musculoskeletal health priorities with administration, congressional leaders, HHS agencies, and health agency and legislative staff (as well as provision of USBJI and other data and resources to support legislation and priority setting)

Access to use and disseminate USBJI's patient education programs on arthritis and osteoporosis

Receive the quarterly USBJI newsletter, program reports, and announcements about USBJI and member activities (including an opportunity to highlight organizational information)

Invitations to briefings, press conferences, patient forums, meetings, conferences sponsored by USBJI

Recognition by USBJI social media platforms for significant achievements relevant to the USBJI mission

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Annual Membership Levels

Non-Profit Member

Charitable, research, and educational not-for-profit organizations that support the objectives and activities of USBJI; non-profit members:

- are entitled to designate a representative to serve on the USBJI Bone and Joint Alliance Council
- have an opportunity for a representative to be elected to serve as a member of the USBJI Executive Council

$1,000 Annual Fee

Private Sector Member

(dues vary by revenue)

For-profit organizations that support the objectives and activities of USBJI; Private Sector Members are entitled to:

- designate a representative to serve on the USBJI Bone and Joint Alliance Council (as ex-officio members)

Annual membership dues for Private Sector Members are based on their US annual revenue:

$25,000 (>$500M in U.S. revenue)

$12,500 (>$100M-$499M in U.S. revenue)

$5,000 (>$50M-$99M in U.S. revenue)

$2,500 (<$50M in U.S. revenue)

Member Contact Information

Organization contact _____ Title _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Contact Phone _____ Contact Email _____

Organization Phone _____ Organization Website _____

Signature _____

Payment Method

Please invoice Full payment enclosed Pledge payment enclosed

Make checks payable to: U.S. Bone and Joint Institute
403 West St. Charles Road, Suite 403B, Lombard, IL 60148

For more information regarding membership, membership dues or payment options, please contact:

David Lee, Executive Director
david@affinity-strategies.com • 217.375.3917